Counseling Services

We are here to provide you with as much mental health support as we can. Our confidential, safe, diverse, and judgment free center may be able to support you through your educational journeys.

Counseling Sessions: Students may receive a limited amount of no-fee counseling sessions during their academic careers.

Population Served: Only actively enrolled undergraduate or graduate students may receive services.

Types of Services: All services are provided in person or via video conferencing. We provide individual and/or couples counseling, crisis management, psychoeducation, outreach, referrals to community providers/resources, Vibe (creative activity and mindfulness events), and consultation by phone or email as needed or through Let's Talk (consultation drop-in service).

Type of Challenges Seen: Stress, adjustments to college, phase of life issues, academic challenges, time management, anxiety, depression, suicidal thoughts, self-esteem issues, sadness, loneliness, identity issues, cultural issues, eating challenges, substance use, interpersonal issues, grief, etc.
