

Chaminade University IRB
Form VI
IRB Conflict of Interest Disclosure Form

Purpose

The purpose of this form is to disclose any financial or non-financial conflicts of interest (COI) related to the design, recruitment, consent process, data collection, analysis, interpretation, or reporting of research submitted to the Chaminade University Institutional Review Board (IRB).

A Conflict of Interest exists when a financial, personal, professional, supervisory, institutional, or role-based interest could reasonably appear to affect, or actually affect, the integrity of the research or the rights, safety, and welfare of human participants.

Conflicts of interest are not limited to financial interests. They may include multiple roles, professional commitments, power differentials, or relationships that could influence participant decision-making or researcher judgment. The existence of a conflict does not automatically disqualify a study from approval. However, appropriate disclosure and, when necessary, a management plan is required.

This form must be completed by all individuals involved in the design, conduct, or reporting of research, and must include disclosure of interests held by the individual's spouse or domestic partner and dependent children.

NOTE: A separate Conflict of Interest Disclosure Form must be completed by EACH investigator and key personnel involved in the design, conduct, or reporting of the study.

SECTION I: General Information

1. Principal Investigator (PI) Name:
2. Additional Key Personnel (if applicable):
3. Protocol ID:
4. Protocol Title:
5. Name of Individual Completing this Form:
6. Role in Study (e.g., PI, Co-Investigator, Research Assistant, Faculty Advisor):
7. Department/ Affiliation:
8. Sponsor (if applicable):

Receiving research support from a non-commercial entity (e.g., NIH, NSF, DOE) does not automatically constitute a conflict of interest. Relationships with commercial entities or individuals that may result in financial gain must be disclosed.

SECTION III: Non-Financial Conflicts of Interest

In addition to financial interests, please disclose any non-financial interests that could reasonably appear to affect objectivity, participant welfare, voluntary participation, or research integrity.

A. Authority or Power Over Participants

- I have direct authority over potential participants (e.g., grading, employment evaluation, clinical care, supervision).
- I am recruiting individuals with whom I have a current or recent supervisory, instructional, clinical, or evaluative relationship.
- I hold a leadership or administrative role that may influence participant access, participation, or outcomes.

B. Professional, Intellectual, or Career Interests

- This research is required for degree completion, promotion, tenure, or other career advancement.
- I have a strong professional, intellectual, or advocacy commitment related to the study topic that could reasonably appear to influence objectivity.
- I hold a leadership or advisory role (paid or unpaid) in a professional society, nonprofit organization, advocacy group, or other entity related to the research topic.

C. Personal Relationships

- I have a personal or close professional relationship (e.g., family member, close friend, former supervisee) with potential participants.
- I have a prior dispute or adversarial history with members of the participant population that could reasonably affect objectivity.

D. Institutional Interests

- The research evaluates a program, service, curriculum, or intervention administered by me or by the institution.
- The institution may have a reputational, financial, or programmatic interest in the outcome of the research.

E. Other Non-Financial Interests

- Other non-financial interests (please describe): _____

If any boxes above are checked, please briefly describe how the disclosed interest(s) may relate to participant recruitment, consent, data interpretation, or reporting:

- Not applicable – no non-financial COI to report

SECTION IV: Conflict of Interest Management Plan

The IRB will review all disclosed conflicts of interest and may require modifications to the proposed management plan, additional safeguards, or other actions to ensure the protection of research participants and research integrity.

If a financial or non-financial conflict exists, please describe how it will be reduced, eliminated, or managed (check all that apply):

- Disclosure in the informed consent document (if applicable)
- Recruitment will be conducted by an individual without authority over participants
- A non-conflicted member of the study team will obtain informed consent
